Cashing in on a very memorable night

A CAPACITY crowd walked the line to Stanthorpe's International Club on November 13 for the "Man in Black Cocktail party", presented by the Johnny Cash Country Festival.

Supporting Vincenzo's Apple & Grape Harvest Festival Young Ambassador Rachelle Todd, organiser Andy Wilmetts described the "one night only" (for 2021) event as "excellent".

"For seventy-five minutes, the whole audience was in the 'Cash' zone," the local drummer told The Stanthorpe Record.

"Billy Guy (in the role of Johnny Cash) and the Tusado Three, with guest artist, Elle Budd ... presented a fantastic Johnny Cash tribute concert, playing all of his classic hits and more, and by the reaction and comments afterwards, people not only totally enjoyed the show but thought it was an impressive production overall."

The Tusado Three is made up of Rod Wilmetts (vocals/guitar), Andy Wilmetts (drums/backing vocals) and Wolfgang Greve (bass), who together, "started the night's entertainment with a set of classic sixties tunes to warm up the crowd" of 150 guests.

They are a Stanthorpe-based trio who describe themselves as "long-established local musicians", each playing "with a vast variety of original and cover bands around the Southeast Qld and Northern NSW region for well over 20 years".

The Tusado Three take their name from the band's headquarters and rehearsal space, Andy's Tusado Junction Studios and Johnny Cash's long time backing band, The Tennessee Three.

"After the Johnny Cash concert, Billy Guy went on to do his solo show of classic songs from the sixties to the nineties. He's a great performer and can sing an incredible repertoire of classic popular tunes. Billy Guy has been performing for years and when you see him perform, you know he is a true professional entertainer."

Event organisers "were very happy with the show" and have already begun organising next year's "one night only" event.

"We would like to thank the Stanthorpe community towards the event in general," Andy said. "We had a great time presenting it and it seems the event was much appreciated. We can't wait to do it all again next year."
